Are you nailing your meetings?

Our collaboration with Kim began in the spring of 2020, when she was invited as a guest speaker in a panel debate about negotiating between Norwegian and English parties. It was the time when all of us went online, and Kim also coached the moderator to help us make it interactive. The event was a rocking success and we couldn't let Kim go. So at our celebration of International Women's day (IWD) this year, Kim was our moderator. Now we are excited to introduce Kim's course with all you need for your meetings online.

It's time for you to be heard. Time for you to be seen.
